Lucky Day

Bobby was on his way home from school one day. On his walk, he saw something green in the snow. He stopped and stared. He thought he was seeing things. Green in the snow? It couldn't be what it seemed to be, could it?

He bent down in the snow and quickly dug it out. It was a five-dollar bill. He carefully smoothed it flat.

He wondered if it was real money or just play money. It looked real. That made him feel good. This was his lucky day.

But then he felt bad. He knew that if he ever lost five dollars he would cry and cry. Once, he had dropped a dime on the floor, and it had rolled into the heating vent. He never saw that dime again.

What was it like to lose fifty dimes at one time? Whoever lost the money was having an unlucky day. But this was Bobby's lucky day. He had no way to find the owner, so the money was his to keep.
