I am going to give you a worksheet. When you get your worksheet, please write your name at the top and put your pencil down. (Hand out the Maze student worksheets. Make sure students have written their names down before proceeding.) You are going to read a passage with some words missing from it. For each missing word you will see a box with three words in it. Your job is to circle the word you think makes the most sense in the context of the passage. Let's look at the Practice Passage together. Listen as I read. Tom goes to a school far from his house. Every morning, he takes a school (pause) art, bus, work (pause) to go to school. Let's stop there. Let's circle the word "bus" because I think "bus" makes the most sense here. Listen to how that sentence sounds now. Every morning, he takes a school bus to go to school. Now it's your turn. Read the next sentence silently to yourself. When you come to a box, read all the words in the box and circle the word that makes the most sense to you. When you are done, put your pencil down. (Allow up to 30 seconds for students to complete the example and put their pencils down.) If necessary, after 30 seconds say Put your pencil down. As soon as all students have their pencils down, say Good job. Now listen. In the (pause) afternoon, library, morning (pause), he also takes a bus home. You should have circled "afternoon" because "afternoon" makes the most sense. Listen. In the afternoon, he also takes a bus home. Okay, when I say "Begin," turn the page and start reading the passage silently. Start on the page with the title. When you come to a box, read all the words in the box and circle the word that makes the most sense in the passage. You will stop when you come to a stop sign or I say Stop. Ready? Begin. Start the timer. At the end of 3 minutes, stop the timer and say Stop. Put your pencils down.
Reminders
Start timer	Start the timer after you say Begin.
Prompts	If a student starts reading the passage out loud, say Please read the passage silently. (Repeat as often as needed.) If a student skips an entire page, say. Please be sure not to skip pages. If a student stops working, say Please keep going until I tell you to stop. Just do your best work. (Repeat as often as needed.)
Discontinue	There is no discontinue rule. Every student should be encouraged to try their best until three minutes have passed.

Slashing

My name is Sarah, and I live on Ruttle Farm Lane in Inverloch, Victoria. My favourite after-school activity is taking care of my 1 chickens, Molly, Dolly, and Wally. My second favourite activity is 2 slashing our field. 3
A slasher is attached to a tractor and is like a big lawn mower. 4
It has a seat and a windows. You have to climb up to sit on it. It 7 makes a lot of noise and it shakes and rattles and belches smoke. It's 9 fun to ride in, and even more fun to drive. 10 People with land use a slasher to clear the vegetation 12 from their paddocks. If you don't slash every year, the weeds and 14 bushes grow fast and tall. Before you know it, you'll have an entire 15 jungle growing in your paddock. 16

After you've finished slashing the land looks clean. You 18 can now plough it and plant good things to grow and eat. You have 20 the tingling satisfied feeling of a job well done. Sometimes slashing 21 makes you very hungry. You just want to go inside and make 23 yourself a sandwich and drink some cold water. 24

The rules of our house are, when you turn ten, you can start 26 slashing with Mum or Dad. You have to sit on their laps, and 28 you have to buckle in with a harness. You can put your hands on 30 the steering wheel, but you can't touch anything else. The key to the 32 tractor is hidden in a secret place in the house. 34

 You can see some interesting parts of nature while you are 35 slashing. One day last week, I was out slashing with Dad 37 when a fast, brown animal jumped in front of us, across our paddock 39 and into the scrub. It was so quick I barely had time to see it. We 41 decided to stop and get out of the tractor to follow it. Dad showed me 43 how to track its prints. The animal jumped down the muddy bush 45 track all the way to the jetty by the dam. Its tracks went to the edge 47 and disappeared . A ripple on the water showed where it had made a splash. 49

“Congratulations,” said Dad, pointing to something swimming in 50

the distance. “You just tracked your first baby kangaroo!” 51

The Secret Desert

My family lives in a two-storey house on a dead-end street with a little forest where it ends. The trees there are all evergreen trees . They 1 grow so close together you have to turn sideways to get through. 2
It is always cool and dark in the forest. 4
One day, I left my bike lying on its side and walked into the 6 evergreens. My feet made no sound on the thick carpet of brown pine 8 needles. It was so still, I could hear my own breath and even my heart 10 beating.
Finally, I came out of the cool and dark forest into the hot 12 sun. I saw then that I was standing on the edge of a big hollow. As 14 far as I could see there was nothing but sand. It was a desert! 16

I took off my jumper and tied it around my head, like a 18 turban, to keep off the blazing sun. I walked out into the sand. As I 20 walked, I looked around for camels and palm trees, but I only saw 22 tyre tracks.

The tracks were big. It looked like they'd been made by trucks. 24

Then there were some tracks that were so deep they looked like 26 they'd been made by a bulldozer. But what were trucks and a bulldozer 27 doing in a desert? 28

Keep going ►

I walked for what seemed like a long time, but there seemed to 30 be no end to this desert. I was very hot and thirsty. I decided to turn 32 around and go back to the cool evergreen forest. When I reached 34 the shade of the pine trees, I was a little dizzy. I sat down for a few 36 minutes in the coolness. Then I walked all the way through the 38 forest, got on my bike, and rode slowly home. 39
 That night at dinner I asked my dad about the desert. I told 41 him about the tyre and bulldozer tracks I'd seen out in the middle. He 43 said that this place was called a "Sand-Pit." Trucks used to go there 45 to dig out and take away tonnes of sand. Builders used the sand to 47 make concrete to build houses on. He also said that our house 49 foundation had probably used concrete made with sand from the Sand- 50

Pit.

“Oh?” I murmured. But I wasn’t really paying attention. My 52 dad always had interesting things to say about just about everything. I 53 simply felt disappointed that not only was my secret desert not a secret, it wasn’t even a real desert.

On the Trail

The last time I visited my cousins out west, we went on a trail ride.

A trail ride is when you ride horses on a trail. I'd been on pony rides 2 before, so I wasn't worried about riding a horse. 3
We got up at dawn and had a big breakfast before going out to 5 ride. When we got to the stables, the horses were already saddled and 7 waiting. They stamped their hooves and neighed at us as we walked 9 over to them. I could feel my heart beating. It was exciting to be 11 setting out on such a big adventure. I still didn't feel afraid, but my 13 mouth got a little dry from the excitement. 14

Keep going ►

The horses we were going to ride had been chosen for us. 16

One of my cousins got a pretty grey horse named Dove, and my other 18 cousin got a shiny dark brown horse called Bill. Mine was called 19

Freckles, because she had rusty brown spots all over her white coat. 21

Freckles had a tired look that reminded me of my grandma on a hot 23 day. Our trail guide called Freckles a veteran, which I guessed meant 25 she was old. I didn't know why they'd chosen this horse for me to 27 ride, but I didn't mind. We were all in a good mood starting out on 29 the trail. The sunlight was hot, but the air was cool and tasted sweet. 31

Riding Freckles felt like being on a boat and a slow-motion 32

Keep going ►

see-saw at the same time. Very slow-motion! All the horses walked 34 in a line along the trail. Freckles and I came last . Slowly we got 36 further and further behind the others. The guide turned around 37 and called to Freckles. I tried to encourage her by flapping my legs 39 against her sides, but she would not be rushed . She took her time 41 putting one hoof in front of the other until we reached a turn in the 43 trail.

Then , she suddenly lifted her head and started to trot. The 45 guide shouted at her , but Freckles didn't stop. She ran past all the 47 other horses. I was bouncing up and down in the saddle. I was afraid 49

Keep going ►

I would fall off! All I could think of to do was to let go of the reins 51 and hold tightly onto the saddle with both hands! My cousins 53 couldn't help laughing at how funny I looked. 54

Freckles ran all the way back to the stables and stopped next 56 to her stall. I guess she wasn't so worn-out after all!
